What is this life if, full of care,
 We have no time to stand and stare.
 No time to stand beneath the boughs
 And stare as long as sheep or cows.
 No time to see, when woods we pass,
 Where squirrels hide their nuts in grass.
 No time to see, in broad daylight,
 Streams full of stars, like skies at night.
 No time to turn at Beauty's glance,
 And watch her feet, how they can dance.
 No time to wait till her mouth can
 Enrich that smile her eyes began.
 A poor life this if, full of care,
 We have no time to stand and stare.

The Reader is a Liverpool based charitable social enterprise that works to bring the power of great literature and shared reading into people's lives.

Where can you see footprints older than the pyramids? See four seasons in one day? Be in a garden of Old England and then seconds later be in a garden of Japan?

Welcome to Calderstones!
 'Liverpool's most beautiful park'
 and home of The Reader.

Using this handy map and i-spy we hope you will get the best out of your park and maybe even discover some hidden areas where you've never been.

Visit the mysterious Calderstones, six stone-age boulders which tell the story of some of the first people to live in the area.

See the thousand year old Allerton Oak. Visit the ornamental gardens and the monument to hero dog, Jet of Iada.

Don't forget to visit the 'Story Barn' (opening late 2015) a children's reading and activity centre - and sample the fab food at The Reader Café.

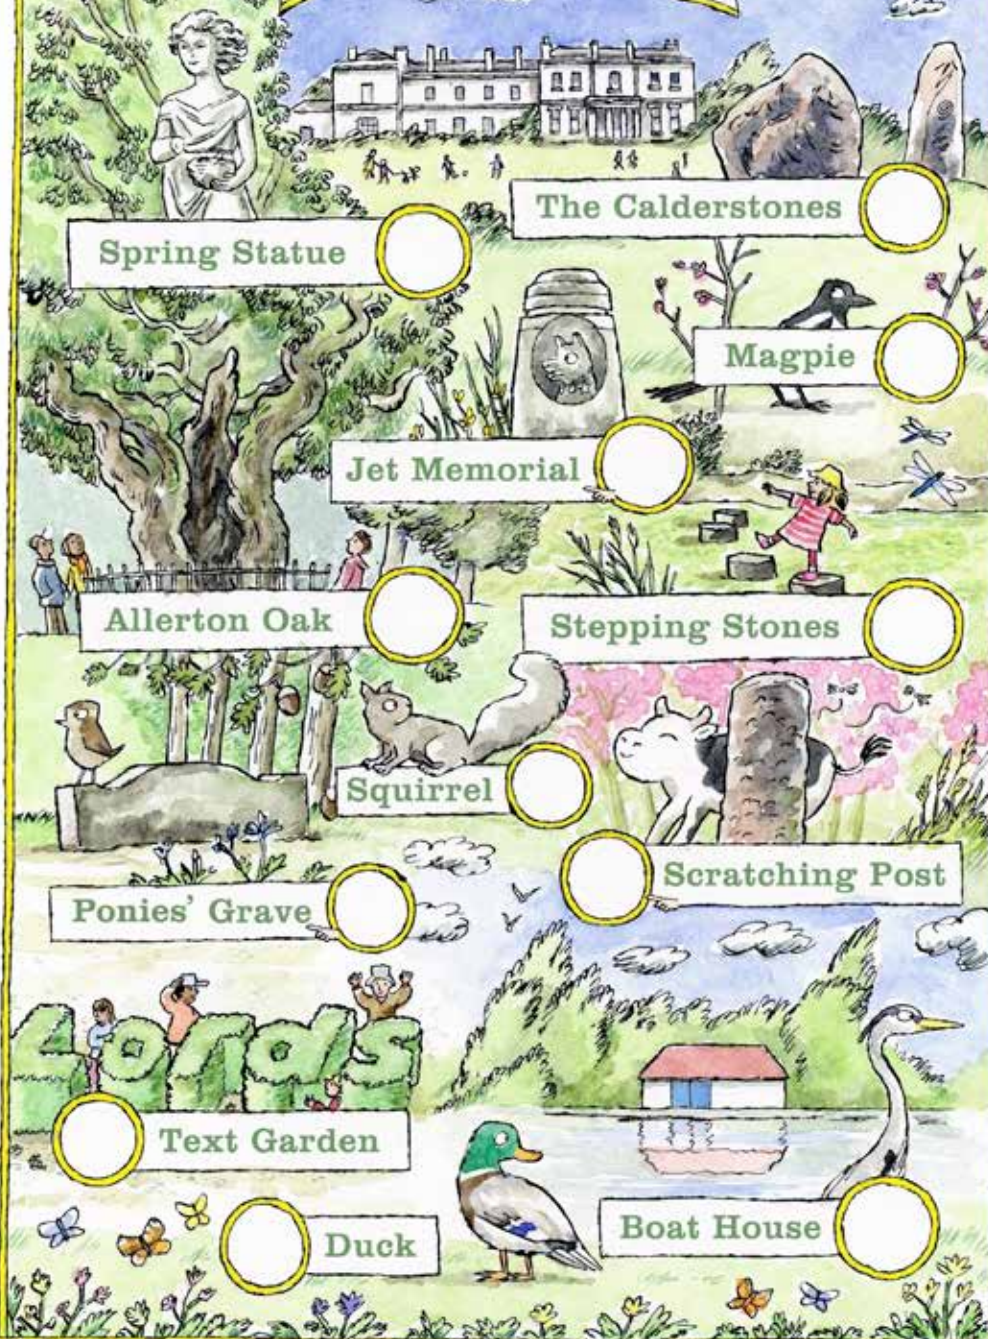

We hope you enjoy the park!

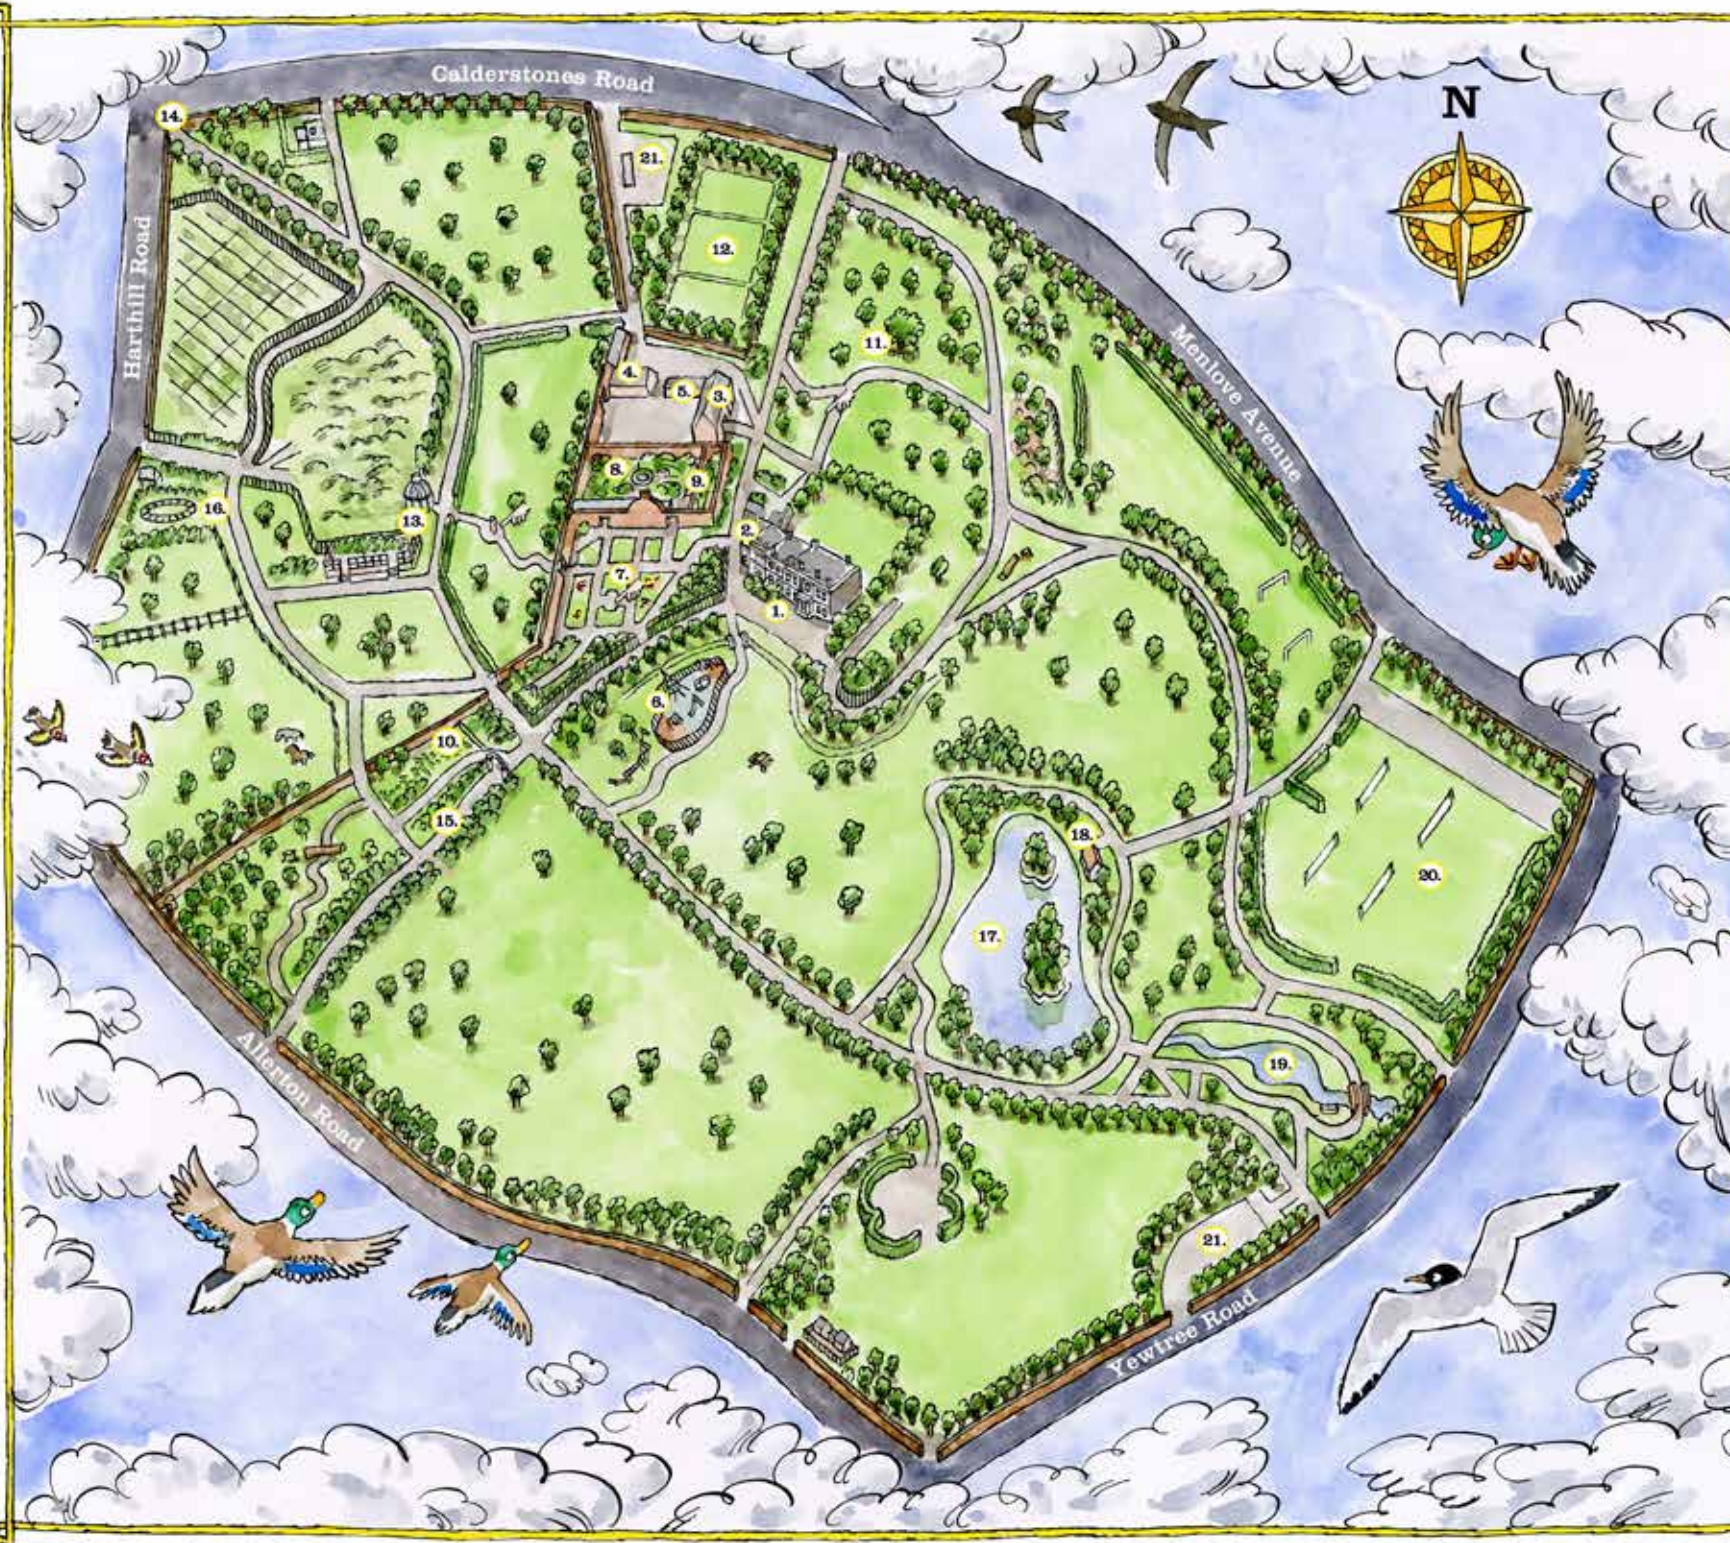

This map is copyright of The Reader and funded by The Heritage Lottery Fund. It was produced with the help of the children of 'Caldies Creatives' reading group.
